UCAS Update!

We are pleased to announce excellent news regarding UCAS Tariff Points and their new eligibility rules pertaining to apprenticeships.

Individuals applying to go to University for 2026 entry onwards will be able use tariff points that they have accumulated from their Level 3 Apprenticeships to go towards their applications. The aim of this new initiative is to ensure students are aware of all the pathways available into higher education. It forms part of UCAS' broader aim to support students take their next steps and support a diverse range of progression routes into university or college. Sutton Coldfield Training proudly supports and welcomes this new initiative as it will increase opportunities and progression for many more students.
