GSCE Results Day 2024!

GCSE results day takes place on Thursday 22nd August and students all over the UK will be eagerly waiting to collect their results and see what their future holds. This is an excellent opportunity for school leavers to enquire about apprenticeships as an option for their next step, taking advantage of the many opportunities available.

"During my qualification with Sutton Coldfield Training, I've really grown in my customer service skills and industry knowledge. Leslie, my tutor, has been amazing throughout the entire process, offering support and guidance every step of the way. Both Leslie and my line manager helped me greatly to prepare for my End Point Assessment and I felt very confident going into it. Thanks to their help i was able to achieve a Distinction which i am very proud of. I'm so grateful for the support i have received and everything I've learnt during this apprenticeship."
