Moving on up !

Welcomes you .....

Welcome to the latest issue of #MovingOnUp, our newsletter that keeps you updated on everything related to Sutton Coldfield Training and broader social events beneficial to the community. In this newsletter we will be highlighting awareness regarding important safeguarding and wellbeing topic such as Sands Awareness Month, Mental Health Awareness Week and Dementia Action Week. We also begin our "Get To Know Me" employee profile series which will feature a different staff member of SCT in every newsletter. SCT would also like to remind you all of our 5K Race For Life Mud Run that we are doing in June with all proceeds going to Cancer Research UK.

Sands Awareness Month - June 2025

SANDS is the UK's leading stillbirth and neonatal death charity with two principle aims: to reduce the number of babies dying and to provide support to anyone who has been affected by the loss of a baby.

Sands

Saving babies' lives. Supporting bereaved families.

Mental Health Awareness Week

Mental Health Awareness Week 2025, taking place from May 12 to May 18, is to celebrate the power and importance of community. Being part of a safe, positive community is vital for our mental health and wellbeing. We thrive when we have strong connections with other people and supportive communities that remind us, we are not alone. Communities can provide a sense of belonging, safety, support in hard times, and give us a sense purpose.

The Mental Health of our staff members and customers is of massive priority to Sutton Coldfield Training and we offer support to those who need it via our safeguarding protocol. If you are having any issues related to your Mental Health and need Mental Health support contact our Designated Safeguarding Lead, Emma Baker or our Deputy Designated Safeguarding Lead, Pauline Hill. Both can be contacted on 07951 025 114 or by using the confidential email: inconfidence@sct.co.uk

Where do you see yourself in 5 years?

"My goal is to progress in my current job role and use my qualification to learn new skills develop knowledge that will enhance my career opportunities as I would like to be in a leadership/Management position"

Dementia Action Week 2025

Dementia Action Week 2025, taking place from May 19 to May 25, is an annual campaign by the Alzheimer's Society aimed at raising awareness about dementia and encouraging early diagnosis. This year's focus is on the importance of an early diagnosis and the need for better diagnosis, support services, and dementia research funding.

Sutton Coldfield Training are currently offering the nationally recognised Level 2 Award in Awareness of Dementia. A qualification that provides individuals with foundational knowledge and skills for supporting people with dementia. It aims to enhance understanding of the condition, its impact, and how to provide person-centered care. For more information on this qualification or if you would like to enrol, contact our enrolment team on 0121 240 3989 or email info@sct.co.uk

A Special Mention

We would like to give a very special mention to our colleague and one of the longest serving staff members of SCT, Pauline Hill. Pauline recently celebrated her 60th birthday and we are happy to have been able to celebrate with her and show her how much she is appreciated. Thank you for all you do Pauline, Enjoy!
