Get To Know Me - Employee Spotlight

Heather Somerton – Business Development Officer.

What is your role at SCT.

“I work as a Business Development Officer apart of a large team and my main responsibilities include learner and employee contact and enrolling individuals on our various qualifications. Working alongside such an experienced team allows me to continuously learn new skills and knowledge.”

How long have you been with us?

“I have worked at SCT for 9 years and in that time I have worked in different areas of the business that have all been centered around business development which has been amazing for my communication skills. I have become increasingly confident during my time at SCT and I look forward to continuing to developing and progressing further in my job role and throughout my career.”

What does your job role entail?

“My job is to contact customers and begin the process to get them enrolled on their chosen qualification and then providing further assistance directly to my line manager on the status of these enrolments, whilst offering any extra support where necessary throughout this process.”

Where do you see yourself in 5 years?

“My goal is to build on the knowledge and experience I have gained so far and undertake more training that will expand my career.”

Help & Advice

Nationwide there is always a dramatic increase in people seeking help in the aftermath of Christmas due to debts accumulated over the holiday. As it can be a difficult time financially for many, Turn 2 Us want to be one step ahead and let everyone know about help available now. Turn 2 Us is running a campaign to provide grants for those in need over the festive period.
